

The Saxons in the Nene Valley

Well-known local academic and archaeologist Stephen Upex will explore the 5th-century Saxons who settled in the Nene Valley, examining their origins and reasons for coming to Britain after the Romans. A Cambridge lecturer in landscape history and archaeology, he will also introduce his forthcoming book on post-Roman Britain.

Prof. Stephen Upex

Date & Time

Tuesday 31st March

Starts: 19:00

Doors Open 18:30

Venue

Village Hall,
Peterborough Road, Castor

Tickets & Prices

In person: £4.00*

Zoom: Free*

*Donation: in addition to the ticket price we respectfully request a donation of £6 or more per ticket/Zoom link. This is voluntary, but is Gift Aided. Access allowed without a donation.

A simple bar will be available

Tickets available on the Trust website

castorchurchtrust.co.uk

St. Kyneburgha Building
Preservation Trust